

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF CLINTONVILLE COMMUNITY CHOIR

The following provisions are hereby part of the Articles of Incorporation for Clintonville Community Choir and are hereby incorporated herein by this reference.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The corporation is organized under Chapter 1702 of the Ohio Revised Code as an Ohio nonprofit corporation and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and shall primarily be involved in fostering a musical environment by providing musical performances and education.

In furtherance of the above purposes, the corporation shall take and hold by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, or lease, either absolutely or in trust for the objects and purposes, or any of them, for which this corporation is organized, any property, real, personal, or mixed, without limitations as to amount or value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey, and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and expend the principal and the income therefrom for any of the aforementioned purposes, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property real, personal or mixed, in trust, under the terms of any will, deed of trust or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes or any of them (but for no other purposes), and in administering the same to carry out the directions and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income, for one or more of such purposes, if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received; to receive, take title to, hold, and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations, or other securities of any corporation or corporations domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes, or some of them and, in general, to exercise any, all, and every power which a charitable nonprofit corporation may exercise under the provisions of the laws of Ohio.

The corporation shall have the power and authority to borrow money and to receive, buy, pledge, mortgage, encumber, sell, lease and otherwise acquire by grant, gift, devise or inheritance, real and personal property and cash and cash equivalents, of any kind and character necessary to promote the objects of the corporation and to hold, use, pledge, mortgage
