

ARTICLE VII
Amendments

This Code of Regulations may be amended at any regular Choir meeting, provided a written notice of the proposed amendment, accompanied by the precise matter in which the Code of Regulations is to be amended, was given to the President at the previous regular Choir meeting. Approval by a majority of the members present shall be required to approve any amendment.

ARTICLE VIII
Ratification

This Code of Regulations shall be ratified only by a majority vote of the members of the Clintonville Community Choir present at any regularly scheduled or duly called meeting.

On March 28, 2008, this Code of Regulations shall take full effect and all previous constitution codes of regulations, or bylaws shall be null and void.

ARTICLE IX
Conflicts of Interest Policy

Section 1. Purpose.

The purpose of the conflicts of interest policy is to protect the corporation's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an Interested Person (as defined below). An Interested Person may not use his or her position with respect to the corporation, or confidential corporate information obtained by him or her relating to the corporation, in order to achieve a financial benefit for himself or for a third person. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state law governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable corporations.

Section 2. Definitions.

(a) Compensation. "Compensation" includes direct and indirect remuneration, as well as gifts or favors that are substantial in nature.

(b) Family. "Family" shall have the meaning set forth in § 4958 of the Code and any Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) Financial Interest. A person has a "financial interest" if the person has directly or indirectly, through business, investment or family,

(i) An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or

(ii) A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with an entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
